ENGINEERED FOR MODERN OUTDOOR LIVING

EMBER™
— BY WILDFIRE —

Ember™ by Wildfire was developed to meet the real-world needs of today's outdoor kitchens where performance, durability, and sophistication matter. Designed with builders, designers, and dealers in mind. Whether specified for a custom residence or a multi-unit development, Ember by Wildfire provides professional-grade grilling without unnecessary complexity.

PROFESSIONAL-GRADE PERFORMANCE

Integrated Sear Burner

High-output searing delivers restaurant-quality results in your own backyard. Built for intense, focused heat, it locks in juices and creates a perfect crust on steaks, burgers, seafood, and even vegetables.

Ceramic Briquettes

Designed to optimize heat control and consistency by evenly radiating heat and eliminating hot and cold spots. They also vaporize drippings to reduce flare-ups for a cleaner, more controlled grilling experience.

Consistent Results

Designed to deliver reliable performance cook after cook, Ember™ by Wildfire delivers consistent temperature control, heat retention, and results every time, whether it's a weeknight meal or special celebration.

Performance you can count on, without sacrificing efficiency or control.

BUILT TO LAST

EMBER™
— BY WILDFIRE —

Ember™ by Wildfire is crafted entirely from 304 stainless steel, ensuring exceptional durability and long-lasting performance. Engineered to withstand exposure to moisture, heat, and the elements, its weather-resistant construction preserves its appearance season after season. The result is a sleek, resilient design that delivers both lasting beauty and uncompromising reliability, perfect for elevated outdoor living.

ELEVATED OUTDOOR GRILLING

EMBER™
— BY WILDFIRE —

Ember™ by Wildfire brings refined design and dependable performance to thoughtfully planned outdoor kitchens. With clean lines and a built-in profile that feels intentional, it integrates seamlessly into architectural spaces where every detail matters.

From weeknight dinners outdoors to effortless weekend gatherings, Ember™ by Wildfire becomes the center of connection. It invites longer conversations, shared plates, and the kind of entertaining that feels relaxed yet polished.

FLEXIBLE BY DESIGN

EMBER™
— BY WILDFIRE —
