

Engineered and manufactured in France, Fusion utilizes production technology from the aircraft industry to craft the gold standard of outdoor griddles entirely of 304 Stainless Steel. All the Fusion products are designed to chefs' standards for an optimal outdoor cooking experience.

304 STAINLESS STEEL

The entire griddle is made with heavy duty 304 stainless steel; ultra-resistant with no rusting, discoloration or distortion.

DUAL PLATE SYSTEM™

Our patented concept combines cast iron & stainless steel for exceptional heat distribution & food contact, the only solution for perfect, even cooking.

FEATURES & BENEFITS

The cast iron plate accumulates the heat then transfers it to the stainless steel for perfectly balanced heat distribution across the cooking surface, reducing gas consumption. Clean backyard cooking without the hassle of charcoal and smoke.
